

Quilting: Learn to Create in 3-D

Classroom 1
Friday, May 27, 2011
10 AM – 2:00 PM

Discover how to bring an exciting new dimension to your art. Explore simple, easy-to-learn techniques that will enable you to sculpt with cloth. Try ideas that will endow your work with fresh visual pop, humor and drama, to set it apart from others. Make a flower grow right off the surface of your quilt . . . a dragonfly ready to alight on a 3-D waterlily pad. . . or a pile of pottery shards begging to be touched.

Instructor: Holly Altman

Holly was previously a textile designer in New York and later a jewelry designer. Holly now teaches technique workshops at The Sewing Center of Santa Fe, and has taught for Thimbleweeds and at the guild's Hummingbird Camp. Holly has won awards for her Art Quilts and Mixed Media Art at previous Fiber Arts Fiestas in Albuquerque and Santa Fe.
