

Silk Painting - “Paint it Today, Wear it Tonight!”

Classroom 2
Thursday, May 26, 2011
10AM – 2PM

Experience the art of silk painting as you create a one-of-a-kind scarf, wall hanging or table runner. In this workshop, participants will use resist to draw designs on the silk, and then paint with brilliant fiber-reactive dyes to create an original 8' X 54' work of art. This technique is sometimes call “the stained glass look”. We’ll also play around with different salts to create interesting starbursts and textures.

Instructor will steam the fabric immediately following class so participants can visit the show and pick up their finished work in about an hour.

Instructor: Cheri Reckers

Cheri has been silk painting for over 20 years. Her work has been exhibited at the New Mexico Museum of Art in Santa Fe, the World of Wearable Art in New Zealand and the Bernina Fashion Show in Houston. She has been featured in Fiberarts magazine, Fiberarts Design Book and Bernina’s Through the Needle. Cheri creates her art in her Jarales, New Mexico adobe that she shares with sculptor, Michael Ceschiat, and their furry family. www.CheriReckers.com
